Reasons for Allowance

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The instant application is deemed to be directed to a non-obvious improvement over the invention patented in Pat. No. 5,123,641. The improvements are the air resistance generating device comprising a tubular casing having a shaft rotatably received therein and an adjusting member connected to an end of the casing, the shaft having an end fixed to the adjusting member; a plurality of frames connected to the casing and extending radially outward from the casing, each frame being a closed frame so as to enclose a through space, and a plurality of blades each having one end thereof reeving through the shaft and the other end of the blades slidable received in the frames.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Prior Art

The prior art made of record but not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure and consists of 2 patents.

Metcalf (5,290,212) and Woods et al. (5,795,270) are cited to show different exercising equipments having air resistance force generating devices.
